

MEDIA ALERT

UAH will hold its largest Admitted Student Day on Saturday, April 6, on campus; deadline to register is Wednesday, April 3

What: The University of Alabama in Huntsville (UAH) will welcome more than 600 students to campus for Admitted Student Day. All admitted high school seniors and transfer students are invited to attend this event and experience what it feels like to be a part of the Charger Nation. Registration is required through the Admitted Student Events page on the UAH website.

“We’re incredibly excited about this year’s Admitted Student Day, which will be the largest event of its kind at UAH,” said Chris Pinto, director of undergraduate admissions. “On Saturday we’ll be hosting students and families from 23 states to showcase our beautiful campus and officially welcome them to the Charger family.”

When: Saturday, April 6, 2024, 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.; registration deadline, Wednesday, April 3

Media opportunity: News media are welcome to come out and showcase the excitement of our future Chargers. Please RSVP in advance.

Where: Event begins with check-in on the Charger Union Lawn, 4705 Holmes Ave., Huntsville, AL 35899, on the UAH campus.

About: Students and their families will have the opportunity to explore campus, visit faculty and advisors in the college of their major, meet current UAH students and future classmates, and hear from student organizations and services dedicated to their success as a Charger. They also will be able to register for New Student Orientation and finalize the details of their housing and financial aid.
